Unsolicited Communications and Identity Fraud

KOBRE & KIM

You should be aware of the increasing incidence of phishing and other identity theft scams. In the past, third parties have fraudulently used the identities of Kobre & Kim employees in sending unsolicited communications to third parties. Although Kobre & Kim seeks to stop these attacks, there is no practical way they may be prevented. If you receive an unsolicited communication purporting to be from one of our employees, you should verify that the communication is legitimate by contacting Kobre & Kim using the contact details provided in this site. Kobre & Kim expressly disclaims liability with respect to any fraudulent actions taken by third parties.
