

Insights

Ben Sirota Discusses a New Development in Antitrust Compliance from the DOJ Antitrust Division

July 30, 2019

Publication: New York Law Journal

Kobre & Kim's Ben Sirota teams up with Crowell & Morning's Juan A. Arteaga to discuss a new development from DOJ's Antitrust Division in the article titled: Giving Credit Where Credit Is Due: DOJ's Policy Shift Allows Companies To Receive Credit for Antitrust Compliance Programs. This article discusses the policy shift within DOJ Antitrust relating to treatment of corporate antitrust compliance programs and predicts what further changes may be on the horizon.

Read more here (Subscription Required).