Benjamin Sauter Discusses “Fintech Litigation to Watch in 2020” in Law360

January 3, 2020

Publication: Law360

Benjamin Sauter spoke with Law360 on fintech cases to look out for this year, including how the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission has changed tactics over time and what it means for future regulation.

“The cases the SEC pursued initially were often against the outright frauds or folks who didn't have money to fight back and they manufactured a few administrative precedents that they could then invoke to support cases against some of the bigger fish,” said Mr. Sauter.
