

Insights

Enforcing an Arbitral Award? Kobre & Kim Lawyers Discuss Strategies for Success

April 14, 2016

Publication: Law 360

Jef Klazen and Marcus J. Green, members of the firm's international judgment enforcement team in the U.S., along with Timothy P. de Swardt, based in the firm's British Virgin Islands office, discuss considerations for claimants or award creditors looking to enforce an arbitral award in Law 360. Emphasizing the importance of developing a proactive strategy, the authors explore ways to circumnavigate recalcitrant debtors, the sequencing of enforcement proceedings, considerations for choosing an enforcement regime, asset tracing, and ways to mitigate the collection risk.

Read the article, titled "Enforcing Arbitral Awards: Success Lies in the Strategy," here.