Hartley West Unpacks Her Government Enforcement Defense Practice in Vault Q&A

August 7, 2019

Publication: Vault

As part of Vault's 2019 Guide to Legal Practice Areas, Kobre & Kim's Hartley West provided an in-depth Q&A laying out her practice area and its focuses on white collar criminal and asset forfeiture matters. In addition, Ms. West discussed the wide variety of clients she represents, as well as some recent high-profile representations, from a Chinese technology company attempting to challenge export enforcement actions taken by the U.S. government to a Fortune 500 company facing a DOJ antitrust investigation involving an Asia-based joint venture.

Ms. West also recounts the first time she "fell in love" with criminal law, and how a morning run can help her think through the legal issues she faces on a daily basis at Kobre & Kim.
