Jalil Asif KC and Pam Mitchell Discuss the Cayman Islands Judgment Enforcement Landscape

November 17, 2017

Cayman Islands-based international judgment enforcement lawyers Jalil Asif KC and Pamela Mitchell dissect the current cross-border judgment enforcement landscape in the Cayman Islands, including options for reciprocal recognition, available remedies, separation of recognition and enforcement, and opportunities for injunctive relief.

The chapter, published in the most recent edition of Getting the Deal Through: Enforcing Foreign Judgments, can be read here.
