John Han and Emily Beirne on Advancing Strategic Priorities in Arbitration and Enforcement with DRD Partnership

March 20, 2025

Publication: DRD Partnerships

On Wednesday, March 19, Emily Beirne joined a successful panel at Nairobi Arbitration Week, discussing the many strategic considerations that come into play in international arbitration and enforcement, including reputational, commercial, and geopolitical factors. Hosted by DRD Partnership, the panel also featured Claire Davidson, Oliver Stern, and Nikita Bernardi.

To further expand on these insights, Kobre & Kim's John Han and Emily Beirne joined Claire Davidson and Viktor Koleda of DRD Partnership in co-authoring a white paper on navigating legal, reputational, and commercial risks in international arbitration. The piece titled "Beyond the dispute: arbitration and enforcement in the client's strategic ecosystem", provides practical insights for businesses navigating complex, high-stakes disputes – from pre-arbitration positioning to enforcement strategy.
