

Insights

Lawyers Jef Klazen, Marcus Green, and Matthew Kokot Discuss the Enforcement of Arbitral Agreements

October 12, 2016

Publication: The Arbitration Review of the Americas 2017

International judgment enforcement lawyers Jef Klazen, Marcus Green, and Matthew Kokot address the process of enforcing a judgment following arbitration in the United States in a recent chapter of The Arbitration Review of the Americas 2017, a guide produced by the Global Arbitration Review. The lawyers detail how the U.S. judicial system works to enforce arbitration agreements when dealing with a recalcitrant opponent. The article includes recent developments in law as well as descriptions of the various judicial mechanisms available to pursue enforcement.

For a copy of “USA: Enforcement” from The Arbitration Review of the Americas 2017, please email inquiries@kobrekim.com.