

Kobre & Kim Recognized in 9fin's Private Credit Enforcement Series for Cross-Border Asset Recovery Work

June 13, 2025

Publication: 9fin

Kobre & Kim's reputation as a leading law firm for complex judgment-enforcement actions in the private credit market is spotlighted across both installments of 9fin's recent investigative series focusing on the private credit space.

In part one, the firm is recognized for its representation of MGG Investment Group in its international debt recovery efforts against investor and art collector Jaqui Safra (of the Safra banking family), and in part two, for its work with Fortress Credit Group in the high-profile case against New York real estate magnate Charles Cohen. That case involves an ongoing pursuit to recover a $187 million personal guarantee tied to a $533 million loan backed by a distressed real estate portfolio.

With prominent roles in both enforcement matters featured, Kobre & Kim is distinguished as a go-to resource for private credit lenders, asset managers, and litigation funders seeking to enforce claims and recover assets across multiple jurisdictions.

Kobre & Kim teams include Daniel Saval, Jef Klazen, Jeremy Bressman, John Han, Michael Brasky, Michael Sanfilippo, Stephen Astringer, and Steven Kobre.

Click here and here to read both installments (subscription required).