Kobre & Kim’s John Han and Chris Cogburn were featured for their most recent victory against indebted Chinese billionaire Jia Yueting in The American Lawyer’s “Litigation Daily”.

After the recently announced resignation of Chinese billionaire Jia Yueting as CEO of Faraday Futures, the team of litigators quickly took action and secured an Order to Appear for Examination of Judgment Debtor in a California court.

Chris Cogburn, one of the litigators leading the case, discussed the process of securing judgment in their recent victory. “We were concerned that that the gambit could make the assets immune,” explained Cogburn. “There was a lot of urgency.”
