In a Portuguese TV interview with Brazilian news program Domingo Espetacular, Kobre & Kim's Martin De Luca – the only former U.S. prosecutor in Brazil – introduced the U.S. criminal investigation and prosecution process to the show, which airs Sunday evenings.

Mr. De Luca's overview is part of the show's reporting on a U.S. case where a former United Airlines employee, born in Brazil, used a dead child's identity to obtain a U.S. passport and his job at the airline.
