Michael Kim Discusses Criminal Apprehension and Repatriation by the U.S. in a Highly Political Event

April 26, 2019

Publication: The Dong-A Ilbo

Firm co-founder Michael Kim was quoted in the leading South Korean newspaper Dong-A Ilbo, discussing international relations between the U.S. and Spain in relation to the apprehension and potential repatriation of individuals charged with breaking and entering in a Spain-located DPRK embassy.

As a former U.S. Department of Justice prosecutor, Michael evaluates the political implications of the U.S. government's involvement, saying that there "should have been several political discussions" before agreeing to Spain's requests for arrest.
