Nathaniel Barber Discusses SFO Enforcement Strategies with Commercial Dispute Resolution

December 3, 2018

Kobre & Kim attorney Nathaniel Barber spoke with Commercial Dispute Resolution on the future of enforcement strategies by the UK Serious Fraud Office (SFO) following the appointment of its new director Lisa Osofsky. As the agency's cases become increasingly complex, Barber said, strong collaboration across jurisdictions is necessary: "In these types of high-profile actions, the stakes tend to be higher and the stakeholders more complex, he explained, "so potential targets will need to take more aggressive, multi-jurisdictional defence."
