

Insights

Cross-Border Disputes Heavyweight Nick Cherryman Joins Kobre & Kim's London Office

June 12, 2019

Publication: Legal Week

Kobre & Kim is pleased to announce Nick Cherryman, a leading international commercial disputes lawyer, has joined our London office. With over 20 years of experience handling complex multijurisdictional matters involving enforcement, asset recovery, insolvency, fraud and misconduct, Mr. Cherryman is a highly valued addition to our teams both in the UK and around the world. His experience in cross-border disputes across Europe, Central Asia and offshore jurisdictions makes Mr. Cherryman a perfect addition to our fast-growing firm.

In welcoming Nick to the firm, founding partner Steven Kobre said: "Many of the most prominent practitioners in this field are based in London, and we have long admired Nick's recognized expertise in this area."

Read the article here \(subscription required\).