

Insights

Steven Kobre Recognized as Top Investigations Lawyer

February 17, 2014

Steven G. Kobre, co-founder of the firm, has been named one of the world's leading investigations lawyers for 2014 by the publishers of Global Investigations Review. Mr. Kobre has earned a reputation as a foremost authority in this field for his numerous, successful government investigation and enforcement defense matters.

This directory highlights the world's leading lawyers who investigate companies or defend companies under investigation by regulators and/or law enforcement lawyers. The selection of lawyers is based on independent research and analysis of more than 16,000 of the world's leading private practice lawyers in more than 100 countries.