

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Chambers Global 2025 Recognizes Kobre & Kim and Several Global Lawyers

February 13, 2025

Publication: Chambers & Partners

In recognition of our cross-border expertise and deep roster of talent, Chambers & Partners listed Kobre & Kim and several lawyers around the world in their 2025 Global Guide.

Our recognitions this year include:

Litigation: Trial Lawyers in the United States

Matthew Menchel was again placed in Band 1.

Derivatives: Enforcement in the United States

Jonathan Cogan earned recognition in Band 1.

Dispute Resolution in the Cayman Islands

Peter Tyers-Smith was again placed in Band 2.
Kobre & Kim also earned a spot in this category.

Corporate Crime & Investigations in Latin America - International Counsel

Kobre & Kim was recognized in this category.
Adriana Riviere-Badell and Evelyn Sheehan were also recognized.

Dispute Resolution in the United Arab Emirates

Kobre & Kim earned a place in this category.
Paul Hughes and Richard Clarke were also recognized.

Corporate Crime & Investigations (International Firms) in Brazil

Kobre & Kim was placed in this category.

Corporate Investigations/Anti-Corruption in Global: Multi-Jurisdictional

Kobre & Kim earned recognition.

Investigations & Enforcement (International & Cross Border) in the United States

Kobre & Kim earned a spot in this category.