

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Danielle Rose Recognized in Benchmark Litigation's 2026 Top 250 Women in Litigation

August 13, 2026

Publication: Benchmark Litigation

Benchmark Litigation has again named Kobre & Kim's Danielle Rose as one of their Top 250 Women in Litigation. The publication features individuals who have "earned their place by participating in some of the most impactful litigation matters in recent history as well as by earning the hard-won respect of their peers and clients."

The guide highlights Danielle's expertise in high-stakes commercial litigation, often arising from significant market disruptions, contested transactions or other special situations.

Click here to read the full guide.