

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Evelyn Sheehan and Amanda Tuminelli Recognized in Top 20 Citywealth USA Crypto Powerwomen 2022

September 1, 2022

Congratulations to Evelyn Sheehan and Amanda Tuminelli, who were recognized in the latest Top 20 Citywealth USA Crypto Powerwomen 2022 publication. The publication celebrates some of the best crypto experts in the United States including lawyers and litigators within a crypto native.

The publication highlights Ms. Sheehan's "active international asset recovery practice, including the enforcement of judgments and arbitration awards and the representation of victims of crime. Her matters regularly involve legal actions across multiple jurisdictions. She has unique experience designing recovery strategies for claimants and insurers in the cryptocurrency industry."

Ms. Tuminelli is recognized for "extensive experience advising clients in the digital currency industry, such as blockchain and technology companies embroiled in complex disputes and investigations. She also works closely with private clients to mitigate personal and business attacks arising from allegations of fraud and financial misconduct, white-collar crime and complex civil and commercial litigation."

Click here to see the full publication.