

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim and Jason Masimore Recognized in Chambers High Net Worth Financial Crime Rankings

July 19, 2022

Kobre & Kim and Jason Masimore have been recognized in Chambers & Partners' latest "Financial Crime: High Net Worth Individuals in UK" rankings.

Ranking the firm in Band 2 of the list, Chambers lauds the firm as being known to be especially strong in cross-border matters due to its global reach, with one source praising its "very strong business model, especially good for working with high net worth clients." Another source remarked that "the firm has provided advice across multiple jurisdictions - this has always been done efficiently and seamlessly through US and UK-based teams that work as one unit and provide prompt, concise and effective advice."

Jason Masimore was also individually recognized. Chambers quotes a source saying "Jason is a closer of deals, he's very tactical, he doesn't run the case on and on. He's so clever." The source went on to say "he's thoughtful and considered, he's not just a pit bull."

Click here to view the full rankings.