

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim and Carolina Leung Earn Recognition in The Legal 500's Latin America: International Firms Rankings

November 4, 2024

Publication: The Legal 500

Kobre & Kim has been ranked highly by The Legal 500 in its latest list of Latin America International Firms for Compliance and Investigations. The publication also individually recognized Carolina Leung as a Leading Associate in this category.

The Legal 500 noted that "Kobre & Kim has a solid record in representing senior executives, high net-worth individuals and politicians, along with multinational corporates and financial institutions," and that the firm is "active in anti-competitive conduct investigations and asset tracing matters."

The publication highlighted Adriana Riviere-Badell, who focuses on government enforcement defense with a major focus on Latin America; Evelyn Sheehan, "another experienced figure in cross-border investigations, government enforcement actions and related asset forfeiture matters, often representing high net-worth individuals and executives"; and Carolina Leung, who "brings further white-collar expertise, particularly in Brazil investigations."

Click here to view the full rankings.