Kobre & Kim and Peter Tyers-Smith Earn Top Legal 500 Caribbean Recognitions

November 16, 2021

The latest Legal 500 Caribbean analysis once again placed Kobre & Kim among the very top dispute resolution law firms in the Cayman Islands, in addition to giving special recognition to Peter Tyers-Smith among individual practitioners.

Quoting testimonials praising the firm's ability to "handle big cases with a small team that is always close to the detail," the rankings noted Kobre & Kim's emphasis on cross-border issues with onshore and offshore parallel proceedings. Mr. Tyers-Smith is praised for "work[ing] phenomenally hard and lives and breathes the case" and "go[ing] the extra mile for his clients."

In addition, the Legal 500 also notes Ulrich Payne's "considerable expertise in complex asset recovery matters" and his practice of conducting "regulatory investigations for financial service clients." Jalil Asif KC is also spotlighted as a "noteworthy name."
