August 12, 2020

Publication: India Business Law Journal

Kobre & Kim has been listed by India Business Law Journal as one of the “Regional and Specialist” firms among the 2020 leading international law firms for India-related work, with Kobre & Kim’s Vasu Muthyala spotlighted for his experience in cross-border government investigations and regulatory matters.

The Journal’s Regional and Specialist firms are those that work in key economies and are “primed and enthusiastic about seizing roles on India-related assignments.” The Journal highlighted the firm’s representation of a multinational pharmaceutical company in an investigation of possible violations of U.S. anti-corruption laws, and of Pinpoint Asset Management in the multijurisdictional enforcement of a billion-dollar arbitral award.

The editorial board analyzes hundreds of firms from every continent with an Indian connection over the past 12 months. The list is based on their research, editorial experience and consultation with corporate counsel and Indian law firms, confirmed by an examination of public records and coverage in Indian and international media.
