Kobre & Kim Named “Firm to Watch” in Asian Legal Business Watchlist 2011

April 2, 2011

Publication: Asian Legal Business

Kobre & Kim was named a firm to watch in Asia in 2011 by leading industry journal Asian Legal Business (ALB). The ALB Watchlist includes 10 firms predicted to make the greatest impact on legal headlines in Asia in the upcoming year.

Kobre & Kim is Hong Kong's first and only U.S./UK-based law firm focused solely on litigation, arbitration, and government investigations. The firm's business model is simple but unique among law firms: We generally avoid repeat institutional clientele and therefore remain conflict-free and able to partner with other law firms as special counsel to help them enhance their existing client relationships.
