

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim and Nine Lawyers Receive Top Rankings in Chambers USA

May 21, 2021

Publication: Chambers USA

Kobre & Kim and our lawyers received several new recognitions in the recently released 2021 Chambers USA guide, while also seeing several existing rankings improve.

Kobre & Kim made its first appearance in the Corporate Crime & Investigations nationwide rankings, debuting at Band 1. The firm's standing for New York General Commercial Litigation also increased from Band 2 last year to Band 1, and the firm was again recognized for both Florida and New York White Collar Crime & Government Investigations.

Among our individual lawyer rankings:

Founding partners Michael Kim and Steven Kobre continued to be recognized among the top New York White Collar Crime & Government Investigations Elite.

Mr. Kim was again recognized on the New York General Commercial Litigation list, joined for the first time by Danielle Rose.

All the Miami partners were included in the Florida White Collar Crime & Government Investigations list. Adriana Riviere-Badell and Andrew Lourie were recognized again, Evelyn Sheehan made her first appearance, and Matthew Menchel was again honored as a Star Individual.

Mr. Menchel continued to be recognized in the top spot among Nationwide Litigation Trial Lawyers.

Hartley West made her debut on the California White Collar Crime & Government Investigations list.

Zachary Rosenbaum was honored again on the Spotlight Table for Securities: Institutional Plaintiffs: Mainly RMBS Litigation in New York.