

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Lawyers Recognized as Top Investigations and Business Crime Defense Lawyers by the Publishers of Global Investigations Review

February 12, 2015

Publication: Global Investigations Review

Partners Michael Kim, Steven Kobre, William McGovern, and Roger Burlingame of Kobre & Kim's government enforcement defense team have been recognized as leading lawyers this year in the areas of Business Crime Defense and Investigations by the publishers of the Global Investigations Review.

This directory highlights the world's leading lawyers who investigate or defend companies under investigation by regulators and/or law enforcement lawyers. The selection is based on independent research and analysis of more than 16,000 of the world's leading private practice lawyers in more than 100 countries.

The publication has separately recommended several Kobre & Kim practitioners for their work in the areas of asset recovery.