Kobre & Kim Placed in 2022 Global Investigations Review 100

December 19, 2022

Publication: Global Investigations Review

Global Investigations Review has again placed Kobre & Kim in its 2022 GIR 100, a leading list of the world's top firms handling sophisticated cross-border government-led and internal investigations of corporates and individuals.

The publication compiles its list of top firms by focusing on two key elements: experience and trust. Based on its research and in-house knowledge, GIR picks the top firms with substantial experience in handling corporate internal investigations and government-led investigations, or related criminal defense, and have therefore earned the trust of its clients, of other law firms and the government agencies in the jurisdictions they operate in.
