

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Ranks for Litigation in First-Ever Israel Desks League Tables

July 8, 2019

Kobre & Kim ranks for Litigation in the first-ever Israel Desks League Tables, in recognition of the firm's continued work in Israel and the presence of the only former DOJ prosecutor practicing from within the country, Robert Henoch.

Israel Desks League Tables showcase law firms that are not only involved in Israeli cases, but also have a deep understanding of local market trends and their clients' challenges and opportunities.

The full results are available here.