Kobre & Kim's Latin America Restructuring Team Recognized in Turnarounds & Workouts

August 26, 2022

Publication: Turnarounds & Workouts

Kobre & Kim has been listed among the top U.S. firms with Latin American restructuring practices in the August 2022 special report by Turnarounds and Workouts, a newsletter for people tracking distressed businesses in the United States and Canada.

As the only global law firm in São Paulo focused solely on disputes and investigations, Kobre & Kim offers extensive experience with cross-border litigation and investigations. In addition to its work in restructuring and insolvency, the firm focuses on international asset recovery, government investigations, and special situations arising out of international fraud and misconduct.
