

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim's Michael Ng Named to IAM Strategy 300 Global Leaders 2026

December 1, 2025

Publication: IAM

Kobre & Kim is pleased to announce that Michael Ng has been named to the IAM Strategy 300 Global Leaders 2026, a guide recognizing the world's top advisors in IP value creation and enforcement strategy. The publication highlights individuals who demonstrate exceptional leadership, strategic insight, and a record of guiding clients through high-stakes, innovation-driven IP challenges.

Michael's inclusion reflects his prominent roles in complex, cross-border IP disputes and his ability to develop commercially grounded strategies for technology companies and IP owners across jurisdictions. His recognition underscores the success of the firm's global IP practice and its commitment to providing sophisticated, trial-focused counsel in the most demanding IP matters.

Click here to see the full list of Strategy 300 Global Leaders.