

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim Team Recognized by Law.com Following Landmark AIG Bankruptcy Victory

August 21, 2026

Publication: Law.com

A Kobre & Kim team led by Steve Perlstein, George Stamatopoulos and Zach Rosenbaum has been recognized as a runner-up in Law.com's Litigator of the Week following a significant victory on behalf of former executives of AIG Financial Products.

The recognition follows a ruling by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware holding that approximately US $37 billion transferred by American International Group to AIG Financial Products Corp. constituted an equity infusion rather than debt. After a nine-day evidentiary hearing, the court sided with 46 former executives seeking to recover more than US $600 million in deferred compensation and related claims.

The Law.com recognition highlighted the Kobre & Kim team's role in securing the result in one of the most significant recent disputes involving intercompany claims, creditor priorities and bankruptcy recoveries.

Read the full article here.