

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim and Adriana Riviere-Badell Earn Top Chambers Rankings for Latin America International Counsel

August 25, 2023

Publication: Chambers and Partners

The latest Chambers "Latin America Corporate Crime & Investigations (International Counsel)" rankings have placed Kobre & Kim among the top international firms and Miami-based Adriana Riviere-Badell among the top international lawyers advising on cross-border matters arising in Latin America.

Kobre & Kim placed in Band 2 in the rankings, with Chambers praising the firm's "dynamic practice" and "significant capabilities in corporate crime and investigations involving Latin American jurisdictions." The publication also notes the firm "handles a wide range of high-profile matters including fraud, misconduct and money laundering cases," and has "solid knowledge of FCPA matters and long-standing experience interacting with the SEC and DOJ."

Ms. Riviere-Badell was recognized for "a commendable practice across various Latin American jurisdictions" involving "regulatory and investigative matters for a range of clients, including major corporations." Testimonials praise Ms. Riviere-Badell as "an excellent professional" who is "extremely sophisticated, focused and quality-oriented."

Click here to view the full rankings.