

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim and Benjamin Sirota Recognized in Chambers USA New York Antitrust Rankings

June 1, 2022

Publication: Chambers and Partners

Kobre & Kim has joined New York-based Benjamin Sirota among the top New York antitrust firms and practitioners in Chambers and Partners's latest Chambers USA rankings.

Antitrust in New York Legal Rankings

Kobre & Kim placed highly in this category, with Chambers noting the firm “boasts a strong practice in the antitrust space” and that “the team is particularly skilled in handling issues involving multiple jurisdictions.” The publication highlights in particular the firm’s experience engaging with the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC), as well as the “ability to advise on international cartel cases.”

Benjamin Sirota “draws strength from his previous experience as a prosecutor within the DOJ,” Chambers explained, pointing to his practice defending “both individuals and companies in antitrust matters.” Commentators praise him for understanding “the interplay of competition regulation and practical business realities, and how to navigate this complex field,” noting that “he is very capable of handling cross-border matters” and “brings his government experience to private practice to benefit his clients.”