Publication: Asia Business Law Journal

In recognition of the firm's strength in handling Korea-based cross-border disputes, the Asia Business Law Journal has listed Kobre & Kim among its "Best Foreign Law Firms" in its latest Korea Law Firm Awards 2022.

The Journal noted that the firm "is particularly well equipped to advise South Korean and other regional clients on matters involving interaction with US regulatory authorities, bolstered by a total of 426 professionals operating out of offices in the US, Hong Kong, South Korea, China, the British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Cyprus, the UAE, UK and Israel." The firm's global team "has been seamlessly assisting clients in various cross-border disputes in major international arbitration seats," handles "simultaneous investigations by law enforcement in several countries," and "can aggressively pursue claims against virtually any institution in high-stakes litigation" due to the firm's conflict-free profile.
