

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim, Robert Henoch and Michael Rosen Recognized in Israel Desks League Tables

May 3, 2021

Publication: Israel Desks

Kobre & Kim's Tel Aviv-based Robert Henoch and Michael Rosen have been individually recognized in the Third Israel Desks League Tables, which showcases the law firms which are not only involved in Israeli deals, but also have a deep understanding of market trends, clients' opportunities and the challenges to overcome.

Kobre & Kim also received a top ranking among Israel-based litigation firms, with Israel Desks touting the firm's "commanding reputation for representing Israeli clients in cross-border disputes," its position as "the only firm with a former U.S. federal prosecutor based full time in Israel," its "significant roles in sensitive and high-profile litigation" and its litigation fund, jointly run with Omni Bridgeway, which is designed to assist Israeli start-ups in their efforts to enforce their IP against major global tech companies.

Click here to read to full rankings.