

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Kobre & Kim, Robin Rathmell Receive Chambers Recognition for Financial Crime Involving HNWI's

July 10, 2020

Publication: Chambers and Partners

Both Kobre & Kim and lawyer Robin Rathmell have received Band 2 rankings from UK-based Chambers and Partners for their handling of cross-border financial crime matters involving high-net-worth individuals (HNWI's). Of the firm's services, one commentator told Chambers: "I have never seen such high-level work, strategic thinking and speed in a law firm."

Robin Rathmell, a UK and U.S.-qualified lawyer who acts for wealthy individuals on international financial crime cases, was described as "a superb tactician in complex multi-jurisdictional disputes that blend different areas of law from white-collar crime to commercial litigation to bankruptcy to reputation management."

Click here for more on the ranking.