

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Lexology Investigations Report Recognizes Kobre & Kim Lawyers

April 30, 2026

Publication: Lexology

Several Kobre & Kim lawyers have been individually recognized in the latest Lexology Investigations report, which identifies leading practitioners worldwide handling complex and high-stakes investigations matters.

Michael Kim and Steve Kobre were recognized as Thought Leaders among the highest-regarded practitioners in the field. Andrew Stafford KC was listed as Highly Recommended, while Nicholas Surmacz was also recognized as Recommended.

The Lexology Investigations report is based on feedback from peers, clients, and the wider market and focuses on lawyers advising on sensitive investigations involving allegations of fraud, misconduct, and regulatory issues across jurisdictions.

Click here to view the full rankings.