

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Michael S. Kim Named a “Most Highly Regarded Individual” by Global Competition Review

February 12, 2013

Michael S. Kim was ranked one of the “Most Highly Regarded Individuals” for the Business Crime Defense category by the publishers of The Global Competition Review. The publishers noted he was “in demand” for complex international cases due to his “extraordinary advisory and trial skills.”

Mr. Kim regularly serves as lead counsel in international investigations in South America, Europe, and Asia on behalf of special or audit committees of boards of directors of public companies and represents private clients in addressing investigations or prosecutions by law enforcement authorities, with special emphasis on Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA), antitrust, tax and accounting fraud, and securities/commodity futures laws.