Peter Tyers-Smith and Ed Llewelyn-Evans Recognized in Lexology Index for Commercial Litigation

November 13, 2024

Publication: Lexology

In recognition of their extensive experience representing clients and their global business interests in cross-border commercial disputes and investigations, Kobre & Kim's Peter Tyers-Smith and Ed Llewelyn-Evans were recognized in the Lexology Index for Commercial Litigation.

Both are "Recommended" individuals, meaning they are "considered leaders in their field," with "fewer than 50% of individuals considered are selected for inclusion". Mr. Tyers-Smith was selected in the "Commercial Litigation – Cayman Islands" category, and Mr. Llewelyn-Evans was recognized as a Future Leader for "Commercial Litigation – England", honoring practitioners aged 45 and under who are "likely to be the pre-eminent names of the next generation."

Mr. Tyers-Smith is an English barrister representing clients in complex, ultra-high value international disputes typically with a connection to one or more offshore jurisdictions, frequently leading major litigation proceedings in the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands.

Mr. Llewelyn-Evans focuses on international commercial disputes and investigations involving ultra-high-net-worth individuals and corporate clients, particularly matters concerning significant and sensitive allegations of fraud, conspiracy and other misconduct.
