

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Peter Tyers-Smith and Ed Llewelyn-Evans Recognized by Lexology for Commercial Litigation

November 11, 2025

Publication: Lexology

In recognition of their extensive experience representing clients and their global business interests in cross-border commercial disputes and investigations, Kobre & Kim's Peter Tyers-Smith and Ed Llewelyn-Evans have been recognized in the 2025 Lexology Index for Commercial Litigation.

Both are "Recommended" individuals, "considered leaders in their field." Mr. Tyers-Smith was selected in the "Commercial Litigation – Cayman Islands" category, and Mr. Llewelyn-Evans was recognized as a Future Leader for "Commercial Litigation – England," honoring practitioners aged 45 and under who are likely to be the pre-eminent names of the next generation.

Click here to view the full rankings.