Richard Clarke Recognized as “Rising Star” in The Legal 500’s United Arab Emirates Rankings

May 31, 2022

Dubai-based English barrister Richard Clarke has been recognized as a “Rising Star” by The Legal 500’s latest rankings of the top firms and practitioners in the United Arab Emirates for Dispute Resolution: Arbitration and International Litigation.

Mr. Clarke focuses his practice on international dispute resolution often involving commercial enterprises, financial institutions, civil fraud and debt recovery. He is particularly focused on multinational clients and has acted in disputes brought to forums such as the High Court in London, Court of Justice of the European Union, Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC) Courts and various international arbitrations. Mr. Clarke has experience handling sophisticated joint venture disputes involving multi-million-dollar claims and counterclaims worldwide across a wide range of sectors. His portfolio involves matters of contested jurisdiction, interim relief, conflicts of law and the enforcement of court judgments and arbitral awards.

The Legal 500 is one of the top rankings of global law firms and practitioners, updated yearly through peer feedback and a comprehensive research program.
