

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Robin Rathmell and Polly Wilkins Recognized by Private Client Global Elite as Top Industry Talent

February 3, 2021

Kobre & Kim's Robin Rathmell and Polly Wilkins have been recognized among the world's top professionals serving international private clients in the Private Client Global Elite Directory for 2021.

The Directory is highly dependent on peer recommendations, an assessment of one's international network and jurisdictions in which they participate in cross-border work, as well as feedback on their breadth of experience and effectiveness in client-service.

Mr. Rathmell is recognized as one of 300 Elite Lawyers and Ms. Wilkins is recognized as one of 150 "Ones to Watch." Please use the below link to access the Directory, which serves as a useful tool in searching for recommended referrals for litigation, family offices, or professional advisers.

Please click here to access the Directory.