

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Robin Rathmell Recognized as Leading Lawyer for High Net Worth Individuals

August 14, 2018

Robin Rathmell was ranked among the leading practitioners in the 2019 Financial Crime: High Net Worth Individuals Guide for his outstanding work on investigation matters involving fraud and money laundering. "He surpassed my expectations and was always available and quick to help during our entire case," commented one of his clients. Peers also characterized him as "easy to work with, smart, but tough when necessary." Mr. Rathmell is dual-qualified in the U.S. and the UK, often appearing in front of trial and appellate courts in the U.S. and England, and has particular expertise in multi-jurisdictional cases at the intersection of white collar and commercial fraud.