

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Adriana Riviere-Badell on Accounting in Fraud Cases at ABA White Collar Miami Conference

March 4, 2025

Kobre & Kim's Adriana Riviere-Badell will share her expertise at the "Accounting in Fraud Cases" panel at the 2025 American Bar Association White Collar Crime Institute in Miami on Thursday, March 6.

Leveraging her background as a former financial associate at a large accounting firm, Ms. Riviere-Badell will share valuable insights on the effective use of accounting experts in all phases of criminal investigation and litigation by both the prosecution and the defense of financial crimes. The panel will explore the goals and limits of accounting expertise, as well as the nuanced roles of consulting and testifying experts.

The panel includes moderator Jonathan Sack of Morvillo Abramowitz Grand Iason & Anello PC; Stéphane Bonifassi of Bonifassi Avocats; Vicki Chou of Hueston Hennigan; Daniel Gelber of Gelber Schachter & Greenberg PA; Matthew Madden of McDermott Will & Emery; and Kristofer Swanson of Charles River Associates.

Click here to register.