

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Adriana Riviere-Badell to Speak on Jurisdictional Trends at 2025 STEP Caribbean Conference

May 12, 2025

Publication: STEP

Kobre & Kim's Adriana Riviere-Badell will join a panel of cross-border private client advisors at the 2025 STEP Caribbean Conference, taking place May 14-16 in St. Kitts and Nevis.

Ms. Riviere-Badell will speak on the panel "USA, UK, Canada Jurisdictional Updates", alongside Rose Chamberlayne TEP (Wiggin Osborne Fullerlove, UK) and Gregory Sanders TEP (KPMG Law LLP, Canada). The panel will explore political, regulatory, and legislative developments across the U.S., UK, and Canada, as well as the international tax trends and challenges shaping advisory work between these jurisdictions and the Caribbean.

The conference brings together leading practitioners in international trusts and estates, tax, and private client planning from across the region.

Click here for more information about the event.