

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Andrew Lourie Presents at the American Conference Institute's Miami Anti-Corruption Boot Camp

October 16, 2014

Andrew Lourie participated in ACI's Anti-Corruption Conference on October 16 in Miami. Mr. Lourie and his co-panelists presented on the panel "How Directors and Officers Can Be Held Liable for Corruption Violations." The panel discussed the continued government focus on individuals, increase in shareholder disputes, and the benefits of an effective compliance program.