

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Andrew Stafford KC and Kiran Unni Unpack Challenges and Opportunities in International Arbitral Enforcement at Istanbul Arbitration Week

October 12, 2023

The international arbitration award enforcement landscape has shifted in recent years. Recent developments have revealed both opportunities and challenges for practitioners, including in disputes against sovereign entities. Kobre & Kim's Andrew Stafford KC and Kiran Unni, both of whom focus on the enforcement of international judgments and awards, shared their insights at the Istanbul Arbitration Week during a panel on October 3, 2023.

The panel, "The Enforcement of Arbitral Awards: Challenges and Opportunities," was chaired by Mr. Unni and also featured Şule Uluç of Hergüner Bilgen Üçer Attorney Partnership, Christiane Deniger of Burford Capital, Nikos Asimakopoulos of Alaco and Evgeny Raschevsky of EPAM Law.

Click here to learn more.