

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Andrew Stafford KC to Speak at IFILA Annual Conference in London

June 17, 2026

Kobre & Kim's Andrew Stafford KC will be speaking at the International Federation for Investment Law and Arbitration (IFILA) Annual Conference, taking place on July 1, 2026, in London.

The conference will bring together leading practitioners, policymakers, and academics to examine how international arbitration is adapting to an increasingly volatile geopolitical and geo-economic environment.

Andrew will join a panel focused on perspectives from North America, alongside other international arbitration practitioners. The discussion is expected to explore key developments shaping cross-border disputes and investment arbitration practice across jurisdictions.

IFILA's annual conference series brings together a global audience to discuss evolving issues in international investment law and arbitration and share insights on policy and practice.

Click here to register and learn more about the event.