

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Benjamin Sirota Moderates Panel on Antitrust and the Supreme Court at New York State Bar Association Annual Meeting

January 10, 2023

Focus on antitrust issues is on the rise in the United States, from congressional proposals of new legislation to aggressive enforcement by the antitrust agencies. In this climate, how will the U.S. Supreme Court weigh in? Kobre & Kim's Benjamin Sirota, a former U.S. federal antitrust prosecutor, moderates a panel discussion during the New York State Bar Association Antitrust Section's annual meeting, at 10:25 am New York time, January 18, 2023.

Joining Mr. Sirota on the panel are Keira M. Campbell, chief antitrust counsel at American Express; Eric Citron of Goldstein & Russell, P.C.; Jeffrey Kessler of Winston & Strawn LLP; and Robin van der Meulen of DiCello Levitt LLC.

Click here to register for the panel discussion.