

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Benjamin Sirota to be Program Chair for New York State Bar Association Antitrust Section Annual Meeting

January 20, 2021

Kobre & Kim's Benjamin Sirota will serve as program chair for the New York State Bar Association Antitrust Section's Annual Meeting—a forum to discuss the latest developments in the increasingly-relevant field of antitrust law. The Annual Meeting events will be held on January 21, 22 and 25, 2021.

The substantive panels on January 22 and 25 will cover front-page issues like Big Tech, proposed legislation, and whether antitrust can tackle broader inequality. Hear from a variety of experts—senior government officials, noted practitioners, representatives of the business community and many more—as they discuss and debate this fascinating field. There will also be virtual networking receptions, including an evening reception on Monday, January 25 featuring U.S. Senator Amy Klobuchar of Minnesota as the keynote speaker.

Find out more and register for the event here.