

News

Many of our engagements involve matters in which our clients face significant public attention. The following is a list of news stories about the firm, our clients, cases and the results we have achieved.

Calvin Koo and Vasu Muthyala Speak on Advising Financial Institutions and Managing Internal Investigations

May 7, 2019

Kobre & Kim's Calvin Koo and Vasu Muthyala, who specialize in multinational government enforcement and regulatory actions, will be speaking on the latest issues surrounding financial institutions and related professionals in Hong Kong at Legal Plus's "Are You Affected by Risk?" seminar on May 8th.

In his seminar panel, Mr. Koo will discuss advising financial institutions in complex matters involving anti-money laundering and the Foreign Corrupt Policies Act. Mr. Muthyala's panel will focus on managing international investigations in the context of Asia-based individuals and multinational corporations.